

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1897.

ONE CENT.

CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The column of a newspaper represents a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising space for less than a merchant can afford to give for goods. A newspaper is a business, and a business is a business. It is not a charity, and it is not a hobby. It is a business, and it is a business. It is not a charity, and it is not a hobby. It is a business, and it is a business.

The Continued Call upon The Ledger for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notice of Deaths

Funeral notices, obituaries, or other public notices where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, published at a special rate. The Ledger will charge five cents a line, and longer for the same will be the usual rate. This, however, does not include notice of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Does Not Include

Avoidance of Disputes

Advertisements are not to be inserted in the Ledger for less than a line for the first insertion, and a cent a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local notice in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—$2.00—the bill is $10.00. When he finds it out there is a "hold" and a controversy. Followed by a "hold" and a controversy. Followed by a "hold" and a controversy. Followed by a "hold" and a controversy. Followed by a "hold" and a controversy.

"All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day."

"If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in."

All Causes Have Their Effects

Since the middle of June we have sold three times the amount of goods than in the same given time since 1894. Why? Because money is more plentiful, and those that have the coin

Are Apt to Go Where They Get the Most and Best For Their Money.

When times were the hardest and most merchants bought the commonest of goods we kept on the even tenor of our way and bought only the highest class of merchandise. We may have missed some sales on low quantities, but we retained our high standard in our various lines, and as our people are now realizing better prices for their product and money is more plentiful we are reaping the benefit of our repulse for handling Good Clothing only. To show our appreciation to our patrons we are going to offer you for the next ten days, beginning Saturday morning, July 10th, the greatest values in Men's all wool Cassimere and Cheviot Suits that were ever offered in this or any other market.

$6.75 Cash

Will buy choice of 160 Suits that were made to sell at $12, which we have been selling at $10. See window display of them.

Last night thieves entered the meat store of Mr. C. F. Zweigert by removing the transom over the Sutton street door. After going over the room they secured about $1.50 in cash and quietly took their departure.

They then went in an easterly direction and stopped at the book and stationery store of Mr. John D. Taylor, where they evidently had a key to the front door.

Here they rummaged through the whole store, and finally took the money drawer out, examined it, took the 75 cents in coppers that was left there by Mr. Taylor, left the till and took their feetprints with them to some convenient place where they cannot be found.

On Saturday night thieves entered the barber shop of Mr. Pearl Blythe on West Second street and took twelve razors and two pairs of clippers.

WEST VIRGINIA

Will Be the Battle Ground of the Great Miners' Strike.

Clearest Organizers, Laborators and Exporters Will Be There

Spreading the Doctrine of Strike—With Coal Advancing, and Not Much of it on Hand, There Promises to Be a Hot Battle.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 13.—On to West Virginia will be the cry this week of all the labor leaders interested in the coal miners' strike. During the week the clearest organizers, laborators and exporters will be at work in the West Virginia diggings, spreading the doctrine of strike. President Carney, of the Amalgamated Association, and Rev. Winston Green, who were appointed organizers by the United Labor League, Sunday night, left for West Virginia Monday morning, and six others, whose names have not yet been announced, will follow Monday night or Tuesday.

Pittsburgh's quota of organizers will be joined in West Virginia Tuesday or the next day by those from other parts of the United States. There will be enough of them to thoroughly cover the entire coal regions of the state. When they have finished their work they will come to Pennsylvania and the Georgia's creek district of Maryland. They will work among the miners of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Co. and the Westmoreland and Allegheny regions. If the strike is settled before that time, whatever success they may have in the West Virginia, Maryland, Cleveland and Westmoreland fields, the officials of the United Mine Workers, according to present indications, will have hard work in persuading the operators of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Co. to mine to strike. The officials are disappointed by the operators' action in restraining them from going on the company's property. But this difficulty is overshadowed by the apathy of the miners themselves. A visit to the mines developed the prevalence of a willingness to strike provided the mine workers' union would guarantee their wages for the time they are out.

The feeling among the miners is exemplified in the failure to hold the much advertised meeting at Health church Sunday afternoon. At the Plum creek, Sandy creek and Turle creek pits none of the operators had anything of the proposed meeting. Many of the miners said they would not strike under any circumstances. The Clearfield bituminous coal district and what is known as the Mountain coal field along the line of the Pennsylvania railroad, between Johnstown and Altoona, began receiving orders from the Pittsburgh district. The action of the United Mine Workers' officials in deciding to make West Virginia the battleground of the strike, has caused alarm among the local operators. Consequently they have placed emergency orders at good round figures with the operators in the Clearfield and mountain regions. The striking miners are successful in effecting a total suspension of coal production in West Virginia and the Georgia's creek district of Maryland. The latter has one of the heaviest outputs of any coal region in the United States, and supplies the bulk of the markets with the bulk of the coal during the strike in 1894.

With bituminous coal advancing, and not much of the product on hand, there promises to be exciting times in the coal market. It is known that there are a number of operators with small orders, and it is probable that a number of the smaller dealers will unite in making one big purchase and protect their interests.

The viable supply of coal is very small. There are about ten train loads of the Pittsburgh bituminous coal in the cars of the Fort Wayne railroad between this city and Alliance on which the railroad company has placed a lien. It was mined for the lake trade, but since held. Then there are 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 bushels on the lake and in the barges and on the rivers. This might as well be in the mines as far as satisfying the local demand is concerned. It will cost nearly as much to handle it as it did to dig it, and if it is put on the market it will be at a very stiff price. There are reports from all over, of the operators being able to put it on the market. The miners will watch the coal in the barges and on the river, and if an attempt is made to load it for the railroad trade the handlers will be inclined to strike. In this the miners expect to be successful.

Fairmont, W. Va., June 13.—The operators at the 17 mines in this county which constitute the Fairmont coal region, on the 13th inst., declared a strike against the great miners' strike, gave an advance of 5 cents a ton Monday, to the 17th inst. The men, however, with the five cents given the men Wednesday, brings the price to 40 cents a ton running coal, which is 10 cents more on the ton than the Pennsylvania and Ohio miners are striking for when the difference of railroad rates and secondary market into consideration. Nevertheless the sympathies of many of the miners of this region are with the strikers. Although the operators fear of which are already in the region, will have a hard battle if they succeed in getting the men out, that may be the final result.
